Successful Chapter Yard Sale and Bake Sale Held

Under the leadership of Treasurer Anne Boone-Carroll our chapter held a very successful combination yard sale/bake sale on Saturday, October 9th. We raised over $200.00. This was our only chapter fundraiser for this year and helped us balance our yearly budget. The sale was held in the parking lot of the Moose Pharmacy at 1408 West Innes Street. This was the former location of the Salisbury Farmer's Market.

Chapter members were very generous in their donations of new and used household items and baked goods so there were a wide variety of items for sale. Since this was the first chapter event of this type many valuable lessons were learned and will be used when the next sale is planned. Please save your unneeded items for the chapter's use and come out and help us either as a seller or buyer at our next fundraiser.

Chapter members and officers who worked at the sale included Anne Boone-Carroll, Vera Wiggins, Mary Bruce, Pansy Saunders, Peggy Huffman, Gladys Earnhardt and Bob Holzmann.

New Chapter Officers Installed

Chapter officers for 2010-2011 were elected at the November meeting and officially installed at the December meeting by NARFE North Carolina Area II Vice President Sue Hawkins.

The new officers include President Ron Buffaloe, Vice President Bob Holzmann, Secretary Chuck Quimby, and Treasurer Anne Boone-Carroll. Ron and Anne are both returning for second terms. Anne is also our Chapter's immediate past president. Bob served in 2009-2010 as the chapter Membership Chair and will continue in that role. Chuck is joining the officer ranks for the first time.

The chapter expresses its appreciation to outgoing Vice President Gladys Earnhardt, who will stay involved as our new Service Officer for the next year.

President's Report

By Ron Buffaloe

I have just completed my first year as your chapter president and appreciate your electing me to a second term. I will do my best to continue leading this chapter forward and will try to emulate the great work that's been done by my predecessors in this position, several of whom continue to be very active in the chapter. I have learned much from observing them.

In addition to the four elected officers it takes many other members to successfully run a NARFE chapter. We have had excellent people step up and help this year and they need to be recognized. Bob Holzmann volunteered to serve as our Membership Chair, Vera Wiggins as our Chaplain, Clarence Bailey as our Service Officer, Gladys Earnhardt as our Public Relations Chair, and Ken Carroll as our Alzheimer's Chair. My thanks and appreciation to all of them.

Our Secretary this year, Robbie Davis, had to resign mid-term due to a family member's health problems. I very much appreciate her service for the period she was able to serve but also appreciate the volunteers who took minutes at each chapter meeting for the rest of the year. These include Gladys Earnhardt, Racine Douglas, Linnea Bailey, Bob Holzmann, and Leah McFee. Each did an excellent job on short notice when needed.

In conclusion, I think the chapter has had a very successful year and its officers and members have participated in numerous events, many for the first time. These included a one day leadership training seminar in Gastonia for the officers, our delegation's attendance at the NC Federation meeting in Greensboro, a meeting with Senator Kay Hagen, our chapter's first-time participation in the Senior Expo at the Salisbury Mall, a recruiting trip to the local Social Security Administration office, and the first chapter yard sale-bake sale. We've also had many entertaining and informative speakers at our monthly chapter meetings.

The only thing missing this year has been greater member attendance at our monthly meetings. We've got a loyal and faithful core group of attendees but hope to see many more of you at our meetings in 2011.
